

A Community Forum on the Future of Anchorage's Trees and Forests

High levels of mortality caused by spruce beetles and the removal of invasive tree species have left unsightly gaps and decreased canopy cover across the city.

Join the conversation!

Friday, Feb. 21

6-8 PM

BP Energy Center

(900 East Benson Blvd)

For more information:
Alaska Division of Forestry
Josh Hightower
(907) 269-8466
Josh.Hightower@alaska.gov

Join a panel of experts from the Alaska Community Forest Council, the UAF Cooperative Extension Service, landscape architects, arborists and others as they discuss options for removal and replacement of dead spruce, invasive species, and more. Bring your questions and ideas.

Alaska Botanical Garden

Alaska Community
Forest Council

