The Inflation Reduction Act

On August 16th, President Biden signed the Inflation Act of 2022 into law. The comprehensive law seeks to address the ever-increasing tax gap. For example, the law allows Medicare to negotiate lower prescription drug prices and can also lower health insurance costs. In addition to healthcare provisions, the law also includes tax, environmental, energy, and transportation provisions. Furthermore, the main goal of the act is to create clean energy jobs, make the tax code fairer, revitalize American manufacturing, and lower health care cost.
