AIAS, the Alaska International Airport System, comprising both ANC and Fairbanks International Airport have also publicly noticed Reestablishing the International/Domestic Passenger and Cargo Service Incentive Program. The program temporarily waives some landing fees to incentivize new or returning passenger and cargo routes.

Airport Police and Fire

ANC Airport Police and Fire were awarded national accreditation on March 23rd, 2024 by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA). The purpose of the Commission is to develop standards based on international best practices in public safety, and to establish and administer the accreditation process. The accreditation process is how a public safety agency voluntarily demonstrates how it meets professionally recognized criteria for excellence in management and service delivery.

4th Floor Parking Garage

The 4th floor of the South Terminal parking garage will be closed for repairs from April 1st to July 31st. Cars currently parked on the 4th floor will be permitted to remain until midnight on April 14th, after which they will be towed to an offsite parking spot by Republic Parking. Following extensive repairs to the parking garage last year, it has been determined that the fourth floor requires additional repairs this summer.

Passenger Traffic

American Airlines, United, and Sun Country are each increasing the number of flights on their routes to ANC this summer in response to high demand. Overall seat capacity, representing the total number of seats available for purchase, has increased by over 6% thus far, reflecting both increased flight frequency and the addition of new routes. Additional flights will be added to American's routes to Dallas and Chicago, United's flights to San Francisco, and Sun Country's flights to Minneapolis.

Construction Update

ANC is expecting another busy summer construction season this year. Some major projects include the taxiway zulu west improvements, water main improvements, gates B4, B6, and B8 rehabilitation, and repairs to Postmark Road.
