Sorry for any confusion. I did write the resolution . Frank accurately transcribed the document that I left at the meeting and that I read from as a comment letter and sent it to me to review along with a generic 'whereas' resolution. Sean inquired about the 'resolution' so I assumed the 'whereas' format was most appropriate and adapted the letter to that format. Hopefully we are good to go soon with either!

I have no objections/comments on the letter

please cc Sean Baski's supervisor Jim Amundsen (jim.amundsen@alaska.gov)

Thank you

Actually, Jess requested the Resolution format and he put his original letter into that format. There is no problem with a General Member drafting a letter to an issue that they brought to the CC meeting.

Both are attached, I have no issue with submitting any of the letters but I will not until I get 6-Yes Board votes which mainly needs a reply from the Board Members, I'm sure. By example, I served on the Goldenview Middle School PTA Board for 2-years and we commonly voted on issues such as this, efficiently without problems. At a minimum, people serving on the Board should check their email on occasion and respond for simple issues such as confirming submission of correspondence, in this case.

Hello, Frank,
The resolution format is hard to understand. I'm not sure it reflects what Jess wrote and the General Membership approved. Can you e-mail us the letter that Jess read from? I suggest that the Correspondence committee just put his letter onto letterhead and add the usual salutations and vote tally.

Questions:

Where is mile 114 to 115, where the letter says to maintain existing rumble strips?

Why use the whereas form? It is not clear, common English, and I think we should be as clear in our communications as possible.

Finally, Ky made good points. The Board is doing a review of the technicalities and clarity of the correspondence: we are not supposed to change the intent or specific points that the General Membership approved.

In the previous email, I accidentally attached the Resolution file twice. Thanks Jess for bringing this to my attention and a revised letter.

RCCC Board,

Please review the attached Letter & Resolution regarding the Seward Highway Rumble Strips and reply with your approval, disapproval, or requested changes. As soon as I receive 6-Board Member Approved responses, I will submit to Sean Baski at DOT.
