Overview of October 7 Meeting

Though the agenda wasn’t quite done at press time, you can expect the usual updates from Officers, Committees, Municipal Assembly and Legislature. In addition, we are inviting our candidates for Alaska State Representative – Lance Pruitt and Barbara Norton – and U.S. House of Representatives – Harry Crawford and Don Young – to speak to us. We don’t quite have the acceptances all nailed down yet, but that’s the plan.

Paul Honeman will update us on the Scenic Foothills Safety Patrol organization. Since his election to the Municipal of Anchorage Assembly, Paul is wearing many hats and he needs a co-chair for the Public Safety Committee. Emergency Watch is also gearing up again and leaders are needed. If you want to help with the Committee or the Patrol, Paul wants to hear from you. Look for sign up sheets for committees at the meeting.

Alexander Monterrosa, Chairman of the Utilities Committee, will shift his focus to chairing the Education and Schools Committee and he is looking for a successor on the Utilities Committee. The incoming chairman will have the benefit of plans for speakers at our monthly meetings, etc. that Alex has already mapped out.

We are expecting lots of good and useful information to be shared, with updates on issues of interest to residents of our Scenic Foothills neighborhoods. Please come and meet with your neighbors October 7th!

Our part of town—from the Tudor-Muldoon curve to the swerve onto the Glenn Highway—is named after Anchorage pioneer homesteader Arnold L. Muldoon. He put up a log cabin among the spruce trees near Northern Lights Boulevard in the winter of 1940. He packed the materials out on his back, along a muddy trail that became Muldoon Road. Arnold L. Muldoon Park, named in his honor, preserves a portion of his original homestead. In 2010, “Arnie’s Army” volunteers to Spruce Up Muldoon. Read this newsletter to find out how you can help!
