

Sept 6, 2018 Meet and Greet potluck Report

22 people attended- great harvest food!

Dawn G introduced self and rest of board, Julie A, Devin D, Shawn T, and Karen B.

Still in search of the perfect person to join the executive board as a treasurer.

Dawn thanked everyone for coming, thanked previous SFCC board members and volunteers. Big Shoes to follow. Thankful of previous SFCC Presidents and volunteers for advice, cooperation, and willingness to volunteer again.

8pm Adjourn

Julie A introduced the council agreement: and the bike rack.

Council Agreement

1. Respect everyone's time
2. Speak to be understood, listen to understand
3. Challenge the problem, not the person
4. Value each person's contribution and opinion

Bike Rack

items written down to be further explored at another time.

Karen B- asked people to take sign equipment, design a SFCC meeting notice sign to be displayed every month, then volunteer to place signs out morning of every CC meeting.

Icebreaker- cc members invited to share name, street they live on, and what they like about the SFCC neighborhood- Results: wilderness, local trails, wild animals, children in the neighborhood, neighbors, raising children here, local businesses and churches, mountain view,

Dawn encouraged those who use Next Door or Facebook to publicize the good things happening in our community. See someone or something nice about our neighborhood? Post it!
