

DOWNTOWN UPDATE

UPCOMING NATIONAL VETERANS WHEELCHAIR GAMES

The 26th National Veterans Wheelchair Games will bring nearly 600 wheelchair-confined athletes to Anchorage for the July 3-8 competition (along with about 2500 accompanying friends and family members).

The 3,000+ participants and family members from the Wheelchair Games will strongly prefer to patronize stores, restaurants, etc. that are wheelchair accessible. Thus, things like crowded aisles and/or the lack of a ramp to an entrance way will discourage business during that period.

With the competition a month away, now is the time to start preparing for these 3,000+ visitors to Downtown. Simple things - such as taking time to clear up cluttered or crowded aisles - can go a long way. More difficult issues - such as providing an ADA compliant ramp at your entrance - can be overcome with relatively simple efforts. For example, building a wooden ramp can help eliminate a step to the front door and may go a long way toward encouraging business while the athletes are visiting Downtown.

TUNDRA TYKES IN DOWNTOWN

If you traveled past the corner of 8th Avenue and D Street anytime in the past week, you may have wondered why the Convention Center construction has stretched down about two blocks past the site.

However the construction at 8th and D Street is not part of the new Convention Center, but rather the construction of the new General Services Administration (GSA) & JL Properties, Inc. project: the Tundra Tykes Child Development Center.

The new center is scheduled to open January 2007. GSA and Easter Seals Alaska, the child care provider, are working with RIM Architects and RIM Design to develop the state-of-the-art facility. The new center will be designed to meet new GSA Child Care standards, National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) criteria, in addition to meeting Municipality of Anchorage Child Care Codes.

Tundra Tykes is required to reserve 50% of its capacity for children of federal employees, meaning that children of non-federal employees also may use the facility. Tundra Tykes accepts children ages 6 weeks – 5 years, but there is a waiting list for the facility.

If you are interested in learning more about the facility or would like to get on the waiting list, please call Sherrie Jackson at Easter Seals, 276-8953 or via email.

BY THE WAY YOU ARE ALL INVITED...

GSA and JL Properties will hold the ground breaking ceremony for Tundra Tykes on June 14, 2006. Mayor Mark Begich and GSA Director for Portfolio Development, Brent Allen, are scheduled to speak at the ceremony. Come join us!

SPEAKING OF GSA AND D STREET...

At the request of the General Services Administration (GSA) – manager of the federal properties in Downtown – we would like to remind businesses and patrons of the SoNo District (including Nordstrom) that the outside parking lot on the south side of 7th Avenue between D and C Street is for federal employees and visitors to the federal building only. This includes weekends and after hours.

Persons who park at this federal lot are subject to $50 tickets and may be sent to federal district court too. Save yourself the money and hassle by parking in the JC Penney garage.
