ANCHORAGE WATERWAYS COUNCIL

THE FUTURE OF WESTCHESTER LAGOON—CROWN JEWEL OR CESS POOL? Attend the Anchorage Waterways Council's Annual Meeting and learn about current efforts to improve water quality and restore fish passage in Westchester Lagoon.

WHEN: Tuesday, February 17, 6—9 pm.

WHERE: First United Methodist Church, 9th Ave. and G St., on the Park Strip

A panel of representatives from federal and state agencies, the Municipality of Anchorage, and local organizations will discuss current multi-million dollar restoration efforts in Westchester Lagoon. This forum provides a great opportunity for residents and visitors to learn more about Chester Creek's water quality and fish passage issues. The public will also have the chance to ask questions and to comment following the presentation.
