Presentation: Discussion about the Public Notice for The Application for Marijuana Establishment License In Downtown Eagle River .

- Louis Imbriani proposed a declaration from the Eagle River Community Council concerning the Assembly's upcoming decision about extending their emergency powers. The Declaration said that the - extension of powers should not be extended.

- Without sufficient evidence that we are in an emergency any longer, the Council unanimously passed the declaration.

New Business: There were a number of new items

- The Council will need to fill out the Community Council Capital Improvements Project prioritizing what the Council would like to see prioritized.
- Volunteers are needed for the following positions:
 - Alternate for Parks and Recreation
 - Alternate for the Chugiak/Eagle River Advisory Board Representative
- Morris Pickel will serve as the primary to the Federation of Community Councils; Sharon Gibbons will serve as the alternate
- Sean Murphy sounded very likely to fill the role of the primary for the Chugiak/Eagle River Advisory position
- Homan will talk with Jason Hemphill about extending his role on the CBERRSA Road Board. Chuck Homan will extend his position, which expires May 2021.
- The Council voted that future meetings will be in person and that they will be at 6:30pm moving in the future.
