

Airport Heights Community Council Resolution to Rename Town Square to Ruth Moulton Town Square

Whereas, Ruth Moulton arrived in Anchorage over four decades ago and immediately made it her home.

Whereas, Ruth Moulton was a straight-talking, persistent believer in the public process.

Whereas, Ruth Moulton accepted a citizen's responsibility to participate at every level of government.

Whereas, Ruth Moulton has been called a model of civic activism.

Whereas, Ruth Moulton helped to shape a better Anchorage and, with her death, Anchorage has lost a tireless civic champion.

Whereas, without the leadership and tireless efforts of Ruth Moulton, Town Square park in downtown Anchorage would not exist today.

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED that the Airport Heights Community Council requests and supports the renaming of the Town Square park in downtown Anchorage to the Ruth Moulton Town Square.
