

Tudor Area Community Council Meeting Minutes

Thursday, January 2, 2014

First Church of God on Tudor/MacInnes

Tod Butler, chair, called the meeting to order at 7:10 p.m.

Mike from the Fire Department stopped in to ask if anyone had any questions.

First time attendees, Marilyn & Mark, introduced themselves.

Assembly report: Elvi Gray-Jackson talked about the tennis court issue (the 2 proposals both failed) and assemblyman Birch wanting April election moved to November. Dick Traini spoke about CH2MHill (formerly VECO) being awarded Port of Anchorage work and about the towing ordinance. See Muni website for more details.

Legislative report: Berta Gardner & Megan Cavanaugh from Legislator Andy Josephson's office were present and talked about visiting schools in the ASD. A constituent meeting was scheduled for Wendler Session starts next Tuesday.

Kathleen Plunkett, our school board representative, spoke about the current budget cycle, a $49 million shortfall of revenue, which will eliminate about 200 positions.

Federation of Community Councils (FCC) report: There will be training for all community council presidents and alternates at the BP Energy Center on March 1, 2014 about all facets of running effective Community Councils.

Old business: There was an article in today's paper about the newly proposed high density apartment housing nearby. The presentation about this is coming soon.

New business: None

The meeting adjourned at 8:38 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Colleen Carlson, temporary secretary
