

Fairview Community Council Executive Meeting February 2, 2017

Present: Harry Need, Daniel Duque, Denise Knapp, Tammy Miller, Sharon Chamard, SJ Klein, Allen Kemplen, Christopher Constant.

President's Report

We have appointed Tammy Miller to fill the board vacancy. We are looking to appoint Josh Sy for the other remaining board vacancy.

Treasurer's Report

Block Party	$1625 (-$179 from the Design Workshop expense)
Beautification	$274
General	$380
Total	$2279

Our bank has not been changed.

Unfinished Business

UAA Historians will talk about the African American history of the neighborhood. We will set aside 30 mins for the meeting to present. Follow up with the Civic Heroes project.

Civic Heroes project working draft of the Civic Heroes plate and wall of items.

No updates on LUPM or Gambell Street Patrol.

Winter beautification could maybe use some initiative for snow landscaping.

New Business

Therefore be it resolved the Fairview Community Council opposes the Anchorage Talks Transit changes and table indefinitely until alternate forms of revenue are explored and implemented. The changes to the delivery system is going to set People Mover on an irreversible course to becoming defunded. Put printouts and send out on the website.

Draft Design Workshop

Design Workshop report was completed. Move draft of the Draft Design report to the website splash page. The Live Work Play presentation will not be until March. There were lots of participants with the implementation of the neighborhood plan. Send out new invites through the listserv and make sure everyone can attend. Feb 26th. Create new flyers. 11am-3:30pm. Needs help bring up more people.

Highlighting the Arena area with ideas participants brought up would be the activity focus of the event. Invite HDR, Tyler Robinson CIHA, Neighborworks, ACLT, Moira Sullivan of AEDC, Weidner's Greg Cerbena, Local businesses, and Duane Adams for how to transform that area. Talking to the business owners directly will put together a list to contact directly. Sharon and Denise will take cover food.

Meeting Adjourned.