Meeting Notes

3. Elected Officials Updates	Sen Begich legislative session begins in January. Thanks to citizens for outcry about the governor's budget vetoes. Making voices heard helped to restore some funding. Budget likely to be contentious again this session. Governor proposes using the constitutional budget reserve. Senate has proposed some revenue generation – motor fuel tax; head tax modified for progressivity and to capture out of state workers; S Corp tax revision for earnings of more the half a million dollars; oil & gas credit reduction. Education Reform – 3 way education bill including Pre-K, Reading readiness/skill/direct intervention programs. Rep. Tarr: Budget flexibility with governor's veto. Multi-year rape kit reform introduces the last piece of 4 measures to end the backlog; Trauma informed school initiative; resources for invasive species legislation; and a sustainable fiscal plan. APD Officer Dave Abbott newly assigned to Mt. View patrol listened to	Community members encouraged to stay engaged. Constituent Meeting February 8 at Airport Heights Elementary School
