Commission

History

The Anchorage Equal Rights Commission is governed by nine commission members who are appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the Anchorage Assembly.

The Commission was established in the Anchorage Charter in 1975 as the Municipal law enforcement agency charged with preventing and eliminating unlawful discrimination under Title 5 of the Municipal Code within the geographic boundaries of the Municipality.

Discrimination Is Against the Law!

How can I file a complaint?

A complaint may be started by calling or visiting our office. The AERC staff will assist you in preparing a complaint after listening to your concerns.

What happens after I file a complaint? (See "AERC Complaint Process" on back)

In most cases, a meeting is scheduled to hear both sides of the story and to possibly reach an agreement. If an agreement is not reached, the investigation continues until a determination is made.
