

Meeting came to order 6:36 pm

Attending: James Thornton, Kelly Ittenbach, Janel Walton, Bryan Hawkins, Karen Gonne-Harrell, Sharon Chamard, Allen Kemplen. On Zoom: Suzi Alexander, SJ Klein

Bryan offered to chair the general meeting next week if needs to.

Merrill Field: There have been airport complaints about noise during "off hours." Sound limit hours are: 7 am - 10 pm.

James talked about reaching out to Tammy Cramer at the Alaska Safety Highway Office about presenting to FVCC perhaps September or October about pedestrian safety.

Patrick Moses (Crazy Horse) up for license renewal.

FCC: new executive director says no legal documents connecting community councils to the FCC, so grants are on hold until they receive a legal binding document. They will rewrite all this to make sure it's all legal and binding as to our relationship with the FCC. Allen to go to the FCC board meeting. A new board was just elected. Amanda Moser is new chair. FCC meetings are 3rd Wednesday of the month at 6 PM.

Community Gardens: James called Taylor Keegan at Parks & Rec; no word back. Sent Ari grant documents. We have additional $10,000 from Anchor Gardens. Hoping either outgoing or incoming mayor's office will support us.

Shayla Freirich from Henning wants to present at June 13 meeting.

John Woodbury from ACDA wants to present new loan program at June 13 meeting.

Saturday at 3 PM will plant planters that Allen made in Woodside Park off 20th.

Fairview for Fairview food pantry going, thank to Maria. Keeping it small right now; word of mouth right now. 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month is distribution.

Allen: Merrill Field cancelled their latest meeting.

Fairview Rec. Center new hours: 11-7. They will stay open for our meetings.

New police chief to present at general meeting after confirmed?

Tom Davis from the planning department is doing 10-year community council boundary review: changes to be announced tbd. Wants Fairview council to comment on this via resolution after changes made.

SJ: no update on bylaws after sent email.

Fun Committee: Plans ongoing; need to inventory Tee shirts. Monday June 10th is next meeting. June 17th is canvassing the neighborhood to let neighbors know what's going on.

Sharon: will have quarterly statement and audit results for meeting.

Discussion about 14th and Eagle scam involving 30+ homeless people.

Follow up in president's report about noise presentation by Hans Thompson.

Discussed attendance records for NRP compliance.

Meeting adjourned 8:07 PM.