Whereas, a NRS provides access to a variety of HUD financing programs offering increased flexibility in application in exchange for a commitment to performance benchmarks, development of a realistic action plan and evidence of robust public support, and

Whereas, the HAND Commission has approved the programming of $20,000 of CDBG funds in the 2011 Action Plan in support of a NRS conditional upon the acquisition of matching funds, and

Whereas, matching funds can be in the form of donated volunteer service, contributions or state appropriations, and

Whereas, the Fairview Community Council has arranged commitments of in-kind contributions of approximately $5,000 and working with other interested organizations for commitments of approximately $10,000, and
