Thursday, December 5, 2013

First Church of God at Tudor/MacInnes

Tod Butler, chair, called the meeting to order at 7:09 p.m. Meeting minutes from the November meeting were approved.

Assembly report: Elvi Gray-Jackson & Dick Traini were both present and talked about the taxi cab ordinance that was recently passed and the tennis court issue. December 17 is their next meeting. See Muni website for more details.

Legislative report: Andy Josephson was present and talked about the legislative conference he attended in Portland, OR, for the northwest region. He and Berta have been visiting local schools. He has visited Point Thompson on the North Slope. He attended a Resource Development Council meeting, UMED Project, and continues monitoring the UMED project.

Federation of Community Councils (FCC) report: They did not have a meeting, but did have, "8 Speakers for 8 Minutes" at Wendler Jr. High.

Old business: None

New business: All six people present at the meeting voted unanimously for us to sign the resolution for "Local Support of a National Constitutional Amendment on Corporate Personhood." The presentation on this was given by a local group last month. A representative from Weidner Properties who is proposing to build a 300 unit apartment complex in the Old Seward/Tudor area, near USF&WS complex, will come and talk to us at a future meeting about their proposal.

The meeting adjourned at 8:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Colleen Carlson, temporary secretary
