Police report- Sgt Stanton

Funding for Community Service Patrol (CSP) is in jeopardy. Most of the employees are paramedics, but are paid only $10 an hour. Looking at possible funding contributions from other orgs. Also, they're down in staffing- 3 people. In absence of CSP, if someone reports a person down on the street, ASD (dispatch?) must make it a priority call.

Pam Moneypenney requests increased drive-thru patrols esp. around curfew areas.

Graffiti Busters still exists- 343-GONE

Pam Moneypenney met with Assembly member Pam Jennings today, AHFC mnger but safety [at Loussac Manor] is getting worse.

Discussion of traffic calming measures.

Tony Fischbach signed on to Trail Watch.

Westside Community Patrol- Sam O'Connor
