19:23:49 From State Rep Zack to Everyone : Akredistrict.org/map-comment/ Is where you can submit comments. Juneau public hearing announced, haven't seen Anch meetings advertised but worth considering your comments and getting them in.

Eg does a senate district pair downtown anchorage with eagle river? That has been proposed, negative for our neighborhood.

19:28:31 From State Sen Tom Begich to Everyone : Lois, technically no. The key was getting them adopted so that the court can view them all. If challenged, and strong maps other than the Board's are on the record, then the Court will consider them equally.

19:31:55 From SACC Fran Durner to Zoom user(Direct Message) : Hi there, if you click on the three dots at the right top corner of your "name" window, you can type in your full name. Would appreciate knowing who this is. Thanks.

20:19:43 From cheryl to Everyone : excellent presentation. looking forward to reviewing it again.

20:19:56 From SACC Fran Durner to Everyone : Tom, great presentation, thanks so much!

20:22:35 From Veronica Slajer to Everyone : Please resend Tom's presentation graphics

20:22:47 From cheryl to Everyone : why wouldn't the developer just go from R2M to R3 with its 35 foot height cap ie Bootleggers Cove?

20:25:37 From Thomas Fenoseff to Everyone : The host need to make the presenter a co-host to enable sharing.

20:25:56 From Kathie and Doug Veltre to Everyone : Thank you Tom, we appreciate all your hard work.

20:30:35 From Catherine Sullivan to Everyone : What is the anticipated capacity in the new school v. current capacity?

20:31:19 From Rachael McKinney to Everyone : Yes, I agree with this. We are very disappointed to see such a significant loss of continuous green space being traded out for paved areas

20:31:29 From Amanda Compton to Everyone : agreed

20:31:46 From Kyndall Carey to Everyone : Questions: 1) what will the playground material be (e.g. rocks, rubber, etc.), 2) what kind of entrance will there be from M st during and after construction, there is a large ditch between the playground and M St to address historical drainage issues – 3) how will those issues be addressed with this new plan? and finally 4) will the overhead powerlines be buried in the easement behind the houses on M st and N st.

20:32:14 From Amanda Compton to Everyone : was the current parking capacity insufficient?

20:34:38 From Lois Epstein to Everyone : I live on W. 15th between L and M and I got NO NOTICE of this meeting and I use the school grounds all the time. I heard about this meeting through word of mouth today. This is a completely inadequate public process.

20:35:05 From Tom Stephens to Everyone : Why build during school year? Why not have students go to Denali, Chugach, Turnagain, etc. and demo? Build the new school in the existing footprint.

20:35:43 From SACC Fran Durner to Everyone : Would like to know who are the neighborhood members of the school design committee. Thank you.

20:35:56 From Rachael McKinney to Everyone : I also wish that we had been involved earlier than 65% design. We live on M Street and will be significantly impacted by these changes and feel that the community was not as involved as it should have been prior to this point

20:40:26 From Lois Epstein to Everyone : Really good point about safety concerns with this design, Martin Hansen.

20:42:38 From Deborah Hansen to Everyone : I have four pages of questions.

20:43:20 From tesche to Everyone : Yes! Involve the homeowners in the area. Address the limited use one-way Inlet Place street. I can see a traffic nightmare, and a danger to children.

20:43:33 From Ken Gutsch and Rebecca Rogers to Everyone : water drainage is a very big problem on our street and during the spring and 20:43:54 From Deborah Hansen to Everyone : What about the parking lot large enough for a 390 kid school?

20:44:18 From SACC – Harry Need to Everyone : My comment is similar re site orientation and southern exposure. It appears as though the giant two story windows and front doors are on the north side, but the utility rooms and solid walls are primarily oriented to the south. Would love to see a site plan and design that is more tailored to a Northern city and climate.

20:44:19 From Amanda Compton to Everyone : You didn't think about everything – this is the first public involvement. That's a critical and overlooked component.

20:44:54 From Kim Stone to Everyone : We participated in the only other opportunity for input that I'm aware of. Is this only the second opportunity for public input or did I miss something? We live across the street and would like to be involved. The news that the plans had progressed this far was a surprise to me.

20:45:09 From Rachael McKinney to Everyone : I don't feel this meeting forum is the ideal space for this discussion due to time constraints. A separate meeting dedicated to this topic that is open to the public would be nice, if that's an option

20:45:16 From Amanda Compton to Everyone : not just nice

20:45:28 From tesche to Everyone : So, it's a done deal?

20:45:57 From Deborah Hansen to Everyone : I feel that this is a sneaky way to make major changes to our neighborhood.

20:46:05 From Zoom user to Everyone : We absolutely need more community involvement. Just based on the current amount of questions that have went unanswered I would request another meeting with the community.

20:46:17 From Trish O'Gorman/Jay Holtan to Everyone : It might be helpful to share how many people from the school who were on the design team live in the neighborhood. I know there were neighbors on the committee.

20:46:27 From Moira Gallagher to Everyone : Please identify yourself "Zoom user" so that the minutes can be accurate

20:46:55 From Trish O'Gorman/Jay Holtan to Everyone : That last comment was from Trish O'Gorman

20:47:13 From SACC – Harry Need to Everyone : To be clear, I am supportive of a new school and investment in our neighborhood. And I will definitely be supportive of the bond. However, the design and public process are critical.

20:47:36 From Deborah Hansen to Everyone : Waiting a month is just delaying us. We don't want to feel we are part of the process. We want to be part of the process. I've lived here for 39 years.

20:47:41 From Trish O'Gorman/Jay Holtan to Everyone : Could you also check the code on the number of parking spaces needed per student population as someone asked.

20:48:02 From Deborah Hansen to Everyone : I looked= it's 1 per 8 students.

20:48:16 From martinhanzen to Everyone : This plan was developed without adequate community discussion. I believe that we should all contact the School Board to request that they step back and reconsider this plan.

20:48:58 From Deborah Hansen to Everyone : How about including ALL the residents.

20:49:58 From tesche to Everyone : Thank you everyone for bringing attention to the school building plans.

20:54:10 From SACC VP Daniel Volland to Everyone : SACC Board will do our best to get the word out via social channels and email list about an Inlet View meeting; once we have something scheduled it would help if you all share about it with your neighbors.

20:54:29 From Ken Gutsch and Rebecca Rogers to Everyone : We have a high water table in the neighborhood and every spring a fear that our basements will flood. There are ditches all around the school on the south side and as another neighbor said, the school has a saturated playground every spring and neighbors have sump pumps working overtime. It is IMPERATIVE that you make sure to construct proper infrastructure drainage throughout the entire lot no matter what the design. Also I cannot image why you have designated so much parking. Rebecca Rogers on M Street

20:56:57 From Kim Stone to Everyone : Since I didn't get to a chance to speak, I will throw this out – is the data used for student projections current? We've had declining population in Alaska generally for the past 10 years or so. We have greatly increased homeschooling numbers, particularly for elementary students, in the past year due to Covid, and that is generally thought to be a long term trend. I think we need to look critically at why we are doubling the size of this small neighborhood school. It also seems like there are some ambitions to make this a destination school, with the IB program, etc. And it is a great school, with great teachers. But again, this is first and foremost a neighborhood school that I would like to keep consistent with the character of the neighborhood.
