2026 Leadership & Officer Summit

Saturday, January 31, 2026 @ The Nave
Charting the Course - navigating a 50 year legacy toward tomorrow's horizon.

Join us for the 2nd annual Community Council Leadership and Officer Summit! In 2026, we are back with new speakers and a larger venue for more attendees.

In partnership with the Municipality of Anchorage, the Anchorage Assembly, and the Municipal Ombudsman, this year's summit will feature some new and returning guest speakers. Topics will include Robert's Rules, ethics, the history of councils, and more. A key part of the summit is the opportunity for council officers to meet and share with each other.

All Community Council officers (or future officers) are welcome to attend. Get your free tickets now!

Our Muni, Our Budget

Thursday, Jan. 22 @ 5:30PM

Mountain View Community Center

We're back in 2026, talking about our Muni budget & fiscal future! Join us on two evenings this month for "Our Muni, Our Budget," a civic conversation hosted by Assembly Members Anna Brawley and Erin Baldwin Day. Learn more about how our city budget works, how it's changed over time, and some of the fiscal choices ahead for our community. You can also learn more about the Assembly's Budget & Taxes focus.

Registration is now open.

Also, ballot and bond questions for the 2026 Regular Municipal Election are due to be voted on at the January 27 Regular Assembly Meeting. Review the proposed bonds (linked in Section 10.G. of the Jan. 13 Assembly Agenda) and active tax reform proposals and share your feedback with the Assembly at assembly@anchorageak.gov and Mayor at mayor@anchorageak.gov.
